“There’s Snow Better Time to Read!”

2021 Adult Winter Reading Challenge

See how many of these eight activities you can complete by March 6:

_____ S is for Snow: Make something with snow. Ideas could include a snowman, a snow angel, or snow ice cream. If bending over is hard, you could try drawing in the snow with a stick.

_____ N is for New Year: Learn about some of the traditions other countries have around New Year or Chinese New Year (which is February 12 and starts the Year of the Ox).

_____ O is for Oven: Bake a warm, comforting food and eat it while reading.

_____ W is for Winter: Draw or color a wintery scene.

_____ R: Read a book that starts with “R”.

_____ E: Read a book that starts with “E”.

_____ A: Read a book that starts with “A”.

_____ D: Read a book that starts with “D”.
