2021 Adult Winter Reading Program & Reading Challenge

There's Snow Better Time to Read!

Registration & Book Log-In: Mon. January 11, – Sat., March 6, 2021

Even though we're not meeting in person, we're continuing to bring you as many programs as we can. Our Adult Winter Reading Program has been growing in size and popularity, so we're going to keep it going. It's open to anyone 18 years old or older, and you can register and log in your books in person or online any time during the dates above.

We won't meet in person, but if you want to get the group reading list to get some ideas or so you can ask people about specific titles, let us know. We can print out a copy for you after we've compiled it, and you can pick it up in the library or at our curbside pickup door.

There is an additional reading challenge that you can do for fun if you'd like to push yourself.

2021 Adult Winter Reading Challenge

See how many of these eight activities you can complete by March 6:

_____ S is for Snow: Make something with snow. Ideas could include a snowman, a snow angel, or snow ice cream. If bending over is hard, you could try drawing in the snow with a stick.

_____ N is for New Year: Learn about some of the traditions other countries have around New Year or Chinese New Year (which is February 12 and starts the Year of the Ox).

_____ O is for Oven: Bake a warm, comforting food and eat it while reading.

_____ W is for Winter: Draw or color a wintery scene.

_____ R: Read a book that starts with “R”.

_____ E: Read a book that starts with “E”.

_____ A: Read a book that starts with “A”.

_____ D: Read a book that starts with “D”.
