Logging books you've read is available online or if preferred, use these paper logs. Please completely fill your log before submit each copied log to WTPLibrary. Books may be used for reading & logging from any LCLC library during this summer reading program. Staff can help you if you'd like to request holds. More paper logs are available, just ask & the front desk staff will give you additional sheets & take your copied logs too. Please do not wait until the end of the program in August to submit all your logs. Your cooperation is appreciated. Thank you for joining us for a summer having "Oceans of Possibilities" 2022!
